

Wings Seminars Women with Wings Scholarship Application

We are very happy to be able to offer 3 full scholarships to our Women With Wings leadership seminar, which will be held January 18-20 in Ashland, Oregon. The purpose of this scholarship is to inspire emerging leaders, provide rich networking opportunities, share resources and support, and help build leadership capacity in women who may not otherwise be able to attend this seminar.

The scholarship will cover the full cost of the seminar ($745) and will be awarded to three women based on the following criteria. Applications do not need to meet all of the requirements. We will base decisions on the whole of the application and the number we receive.

- Women age 35 or under with some leadership experience
- Women underrepresented in their fields due to gender, race, sexual orientation, or other factors
- Women with financial need

Application process and timeline

Applications are due by September 1. We will make and announce decisions by September 11. Registration for the seminar will remain open until full. Please return completed applications to dawn@wings-seminars.com.
